Sheriff to augment city's police patrols

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

Once again, the city of Romulus will have Wayne County Sheriff Department cars patrolling its streets - at least part-time.

Citing the loss of eight police officers due to the Detroit Police recall, it was voted at last week's regular meeting of the city council to adopt a set of guidelines for secondary road patrols by the Sheriff's Department.

It is not known whether this will be a temporary move until the new officers have been tested and sworn in, or if it will stay in effect longer.

Previous to the council meeting, Mayor Beverly McAnally, Police Chief Donald Flood, Deputy Chief John Lewis and Sheriff Robert Ficano met at Romulus City Hall to work out an agreement and the stipulations needed for a smooth relationship between the Romulus Police and sheriff's deputies.

The following items were agreed to:

- The city will work with its commissioner, Milton Mack, to have the County Commission approve the city's request as soon as possible.

- The Sheriff's Department will provide patrol one day each week, assigning most of the members of each shift to the city, rotating the days in the city from Sunday through Friday.

- The police department will provide information to the Sheriff's Department regarding the areas they would like patrolled heavily, but understands that deputies will not be expected to remain exclusively in these areas.

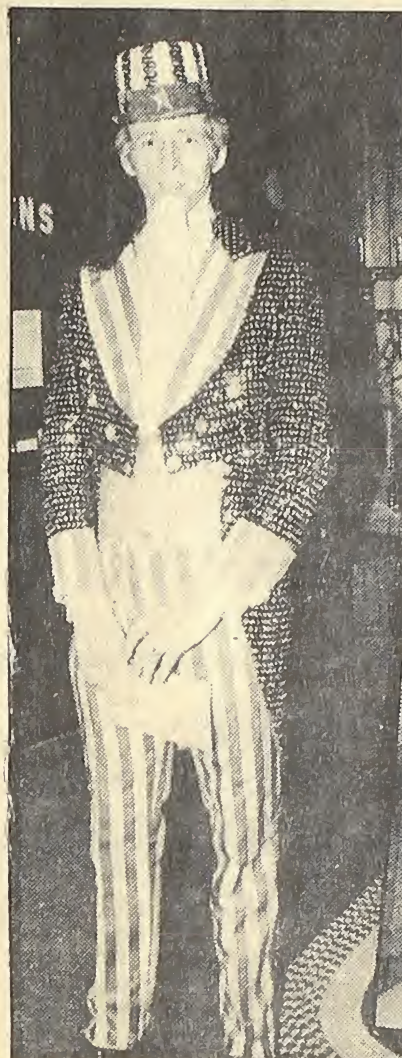

- Sheriff's deputies will not respond to any calls for general police services except in emergencies. The purpose of such response will be to control a situation until the arrival of the city police. Calls for general police services will be referred to the city police department.

red to the city police department.

- Sheriff's deputies will not investigate traffic crashes in the city unless requested to do so by the city police department. Reports of crashes received by the Sheriff's Department will be referred to the city police department. If the city police department cannot put a car on the scene of a crash at which a Sheriff's car is standing by within five minutes, the city will advise the Sheriff's Department to investigate the crash.

- Copies of all crash investigations will be forwarded to the city police department in a timely manner, using the 34th District Court as a drop off and pick up point.

- Arrangements will be made to have all citations written in the city by 416 officers converted to city ordinance violations. Both the city officials and the Sheriff's Department will meet with the court to accomplish this.

Fashionable

No, it isn't Halloween, but costumes are definitely "in" this spring in Romulus, as fun-loving residents spice up the year-long Romulus Sesquicentennial Celebration by dressing up in the fashions of the time, when, 150 years ago, Romulus came into being. Even Uncle Sam (well played by Ron Dick) is getting into the act! Also pictured are (from left, back row) Berta Dezomits, Mavis Rocheleau, and Lillian Patrias (front row, from left) Geoff Herrmann, Kenneth Krueger, and Darius Varner, all members of the Romulus Historical Society.

Romulus High field to bear Lau's name

The Romulus City Council has declared Saturday, May 4, as "Charlie Lau Day," in honor of the late, great baseball player and coach who died last year following a lingering illness.

On that day, the city, along with the Romulus community school board, will rename the senior high school baseball field as "Charlie Lau Memorial Field."

Lau spent 25 years in the major leagues, including a short stint with the Detroit Tigers, but it was later, as a batting coach that Lau really found his niche. Renowned sluggers such as Reggie "Mr. October" Jackson have sung the praises of Lau's coaching abilities.

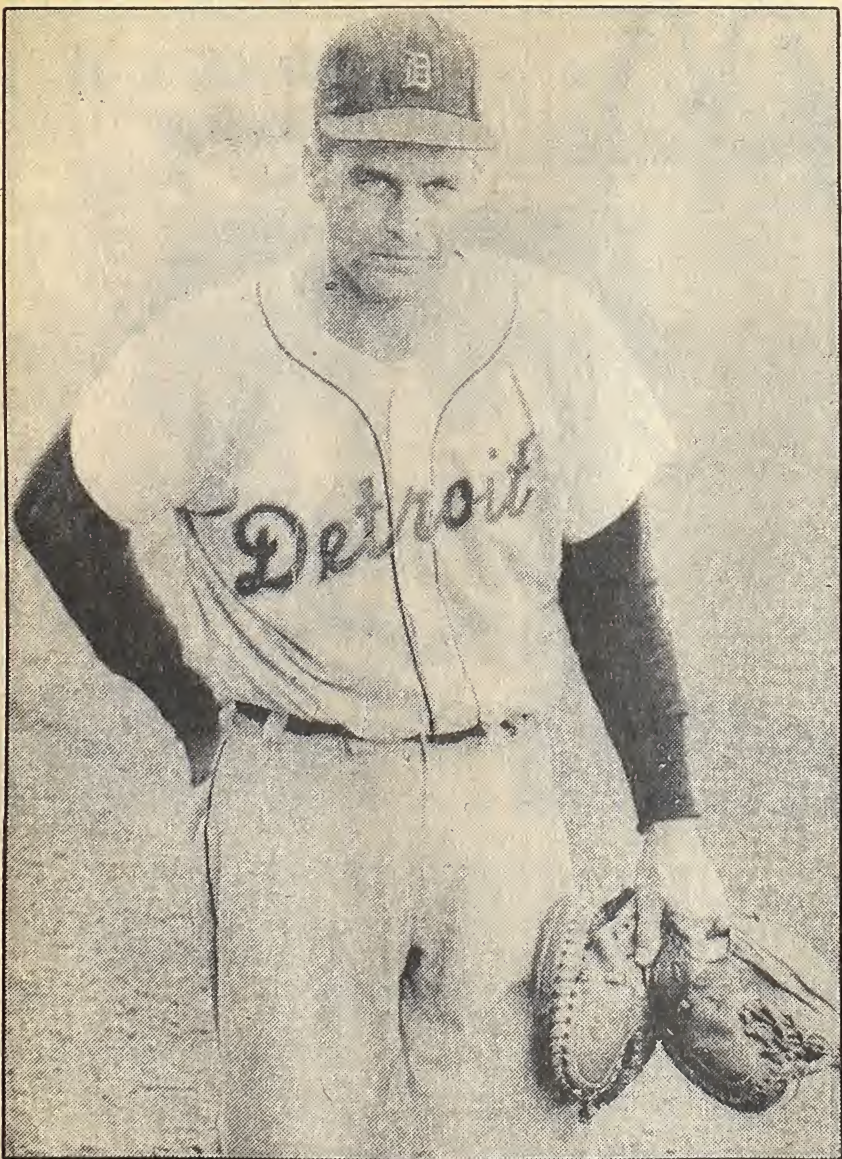

Referred to as the best batting coach in the game, Lau, who spent his last years with the Chicago White Sox organization, often had announcers on both local and national television mentioning his Romulus roots.

While attending Romulus High School, Lau was an all-around athlete who broke numerous school records.

In his later years, Lau was reportedly the highest paid coach in baseball history. He also wrote a book called "The Art of Hitting .300" and made two popular instructional batting videotapes which are used by players of all ages looking to improve their game.

The ceremony will begin at 10:45 Saturday, May 4, at the baseball field, which is located directly behind Romulus High School, a quarter mile north of I-94 on Wayne Road.

According to community relations director Dennis Davidson, a committee of friends and family are currently active in a fund raising venture to provide a monument and scoreboard at the field. Anyone wishing to donate to the memorial and those looking for more information should call the Romulus community relations office at 941-0666.

3 killed in auto crash

A Romulus woman and her two-year-old baby were killed March 28 when their car was struck head on by a 41-year-old Canton driver who apparently lost control of his automobile on Ecorse Road near Cogswell in Romulus. The Canton man also died later from injuries sustained in the accident.

Laura Sue Jesko, 23, was pronounced dead at the scene at 5:19 p.m. Jacob Jesko, two, died at approximately 9:30 a.m. the following morning at the Mott Children's Center in Ann Arbor where he had been

4 file for school posts

Four Romulus residents, including the two incumbents, will be vying for two four-year terms on the Board of Education in the annual school election June 10.

Seeking their second term on the school board will be incumbents Dan Bales and Sandra Langley. Challenging them will be newcomers Todd Hauter and Frederick Hay.

The two board seats will be the only issues on the ballot, after voters approved a 9-mill tax renewal in a special election last month.

The candidates will have until 4 p.m. Thursday (April 11) in which to withdraw from the election, which will be held on Monday, June 10.

Students' test scores rise

A recent study shows that students in the Romulus Community School system are performing slightly above average in reading and mathematics on the California Achievement Test. The CAT is a standardized, norm-referenced achievement measure.

Dr. Warren Williams, district testing consultant and professor at Eastern Michigan University, conducted the study, which is meant to monitor student achievement, study the effectiveness of the instructional program, and to provide academic guidance for the students. Romulus schools administer the CAT test to all students once a year.

Results indicate that with the exception of the seventh grade, Romulus students' CAT reading scores were at or above the national average. The seventh grade scores were slightly below the national average.

In addition, Romulus CAT mathematics scores were at or above average at all grade levels, with the eighth grade scores "well above the national average," according to Williams' report.

Dr. William Bedell, Romulus Superintendent of Schools, said, "Our students, staff and community are all proud of these results. They reflect the hard work and commitment of all of us involved in the Romulus educational enterprise."

Dr. Terrel LeCesne, assistant superintendent, reported that CAT scores have been stable for the past three years with district averages surpassing the national average for all except two grade levels over those years.

"We're pleased by these findings," LeCesne said, adding that "the test results support our belief that the Romulus schools are effective and our students are making good progress in their studies."

Donde esta?

Six Romulus Senior High School students and their teacher are enjoying a two-week stay in sunny Spain as part of travel-homestay program. The students left March 31 for Spain, where they are sightseeing, as well as staying with individual Spanish families to improve their understanding of the different culture and their language skills. Making the trip, that includes seven days in Madrid, three in Granada and three in Malaga, are Sandy Barr (front row, from left), Yolanda Taylor, Kelly Noel, Debbie Barr (back row, from left), Nicole Huby, Angela Fronczak and Spanish teacher Linda Kuhn. Fundraising paid for 65 percent of the students' expenses.

club notes

8 Study Club members attend Legislative Day

Eight members of the GFWC Belleville Area Intermediate Study Club were present in Lansing on Tuesday, Feb. 26, for the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs' annual Legislative Day.

Attending from the Belleville club were Cathy Horste,

MSFWC Public Affairs Chairman; Nancy Sawyer, MSFWC Communications Chairman; Connie Etter, MSFWC Conservation Chairman; Kitty Davies, MSFWC District International Affairs Chairman; Maxine Lane, MSFWC Treasurer; Delphine Dudick, Van

Buren Township Clerk and club Public Affairs Chairman; Gloria Gardner, club President; and member Kitty Miller. Joining the clubwomen for lunch was State Rep. Jim Kosteva, who represents the Belleville/Van Buren area.

Dudick, Horste and Kosteva were guests of honor at the Legislative Luncheon held at noon, and Horste made a presentation to the approximately 150 assembled guests on the mechanics of being elected to local public office.

Speakers for the day-long program included Michigan Attorney General

Frank Kelly, Dr. Agnes Mansour, director of the Michigan Department of Social Services, who spoke on Women in Poverty, and Roger Fisher of the Public Service Commission and Joseph Tuchinsky of the Michigan Citizens Lobby, who discussed the pros and cons of the Midland Nuclear Power Plant.

The Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs is the largest organization of volunteer women in Michigan. They donate hundreds of thousands of hours annually to volunteer projects in the fields of art, education, home life, international affairs, conservation and public affairs.

Any persons requiring more information about the MSFWC or the GFWC-Belleville Area Intermediate Study Club should contact club president Gloria Gardner at 697-9209.

Belleville BPW holds annual meeting

"Shades of Spring and Easter" were depicted in the dinner table decorations at the April 1 meeting of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW).

The annual meeting of the Belleville BPW is designated for April. Election of club officers and the presidents' annual report is given.

Judy Taylor led the group in repeating the Club Collect prior to dinner.

First on the program was Rosemary Knowles, the Young Career Woman of the Belleville BPW. This honor for Knowles is part of a national program of BPW, set up to recognize the accomplishments of successful young career women.

Knowles is an administrative secretary and associate to the provost at the Wayne County Community College-Belleville. Knowles will move into district competition and on to state and national participation. She delivered the speech she will be giving on April 14 at the district meeting at the KofC Hall in Wayne.

The program continued with Marilyn White, a Belleville BPW member and a representative of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, who told members of the many financial services offered by her company that are tailored for women. Emphasis was placed on annuities, IRA plans, Money Market funds, thrift savings and realty investments.

The program moved on to the special presentation by Georgia Badgett on the history of Belleville BPW, entitled "Looking Back." She composed the history, in rhyme, and it covered the years 1972 through 1985. It was filled with facts, nostalgia and a great amount of humor.

A new member, Carolyn Schroeder, was initiated into the club, with a brief ceremony given by Ila Hayes, membership chairman.

Aldine Potter reported on the spring rummage sale, which will be April 27 at 122 South St. (Sumpter Road).

Laverne Finley reported on the two scholarships BPW will be giving in May - one for a high school senior girl and one for a mature woman furthering her education or training.

The Club Progressive Dinner will be on Saturday, May 4. Georgia Badgett, Laverne Finley and Connie Stoilton will be the hostesses for the three-course dinner.

Belleville BPW members will again be served monthly dinners in 1985-86, by the United Methodist Women of the Faith United Methodist Church-Denton.

All plans are meshing together for the District BPW meeting on Sunday, April 14, at the KofC Hall in Wayne. Belleville club is hostess for this brunch, which will include BPW clubs from Allen Park, Dearborn, Lincoln Park, Taylor, Trenton, River Rouge and Wyandotte.

Sally Bowles, chairman of nominations for club officers - 1985-86, gave the slate. The 1985-86 officers elected were Connie Stoilton, president; Ila Hayes, president-elect; Linda Maton, vice-president; Mable Hall, recording secretary; Valerie Higgins, corresponding secretary; and Marilyn Montgomery, treasurer.

Delegates and alternates were chosen for the state convention at the Grand Traverse Village, Traverse City, May 17-19, and the national convention at Hartford, Connecticut, July 19-25.

Three members will be attending the Legislative Drive-In April 16 at the Lansing Civic Center. Rep. Jim Kosteva will be having lunch with the Belleville group and will tour with them through the Capitol in the afternoon.

Sharon Collins led the group in repeating the Club Benediction to close the meeting.

Terry Mills
One big reason why Romulus had a record 19-4 won-lost basketball season is Terry Mills who amassed 598 points during the 1984-85 campaign to break his uncle, Nate Davis's single season scoring record. And Mills, a 6-9 junior, will be around next year to help Coach Al Wilkerson and the Eagles continue their drive for a Class A state championship.

Stevie Glenn
Every time Stevie Glenn is on the hardwood one can depend on him giving 100 percent effort. Glenn has been one of the spark plugs in the Romulus basketball machine that has chalked up a 19-4 record. Glenn also will be back a year from now to pick up where the Eagles left off - driving toward a state title.

Wasting citizens' time

by TOM MOORADIAN

The Department of Natural Resources and officials from Wayne County will be holding a public hearing on April 15 to discuss with the residents of Sumpter Township and the area an application by a local resident to construct a solid waste landfill in that township.

And you have to wonder why they are conducting the meeting, wasting taxpayers' money and time and stirring up the emotions of the residents who, state and county officials know darn well, are sick and tired of landfills and toxic waste and the "rape of the environment" as one township official said.

The 7 p.m., April 15 meeting at the Sumpter Township Hall (23480 Sumpter Road) offers residents and citizens an opportunity to meet with DNR and county officials. And talk. Meet with and talk. That's all. The landfill which is proposed for a 10-acre parcel of land on Judd Road between Carleton-West and Clark has been included in the county's "master plan". It has been approved by Wayne County - therefore no matter what is said or done on April 15, that landfill will be constructed.

"I do not want another landfill in this township," said newly-elected township supervisor Clarence Hoffman who quickly admits that there is nothing he can do about it. But officials will go through the motions of listening to the residents.

And there should be a lot of concerns. Although the particular landfill will be able to accept industrial waste, concrete and non-toxic material, it will be difficult to police that area, township officials concede because of the lack of manpower, therefore, who's to say that toxic wastes also won't be dumped in that landfill. Or who's to prevent the landfill owner to later amend his application and request a permit to allow toxic wastes to be dumped?

Labeled a "correction project", the landfill has been the hub of controversy over the past five years.

"Once this landfill was inserted in the county plan, there is definitely nothing the township can do to stop the project," reiterated Hoffman.

Bet there will be a standing-room-only crowd on hand for that meeting.

And since this is Get-the-DNR week", its new order to phase out the use of oil field brines for dust control recently came under attack by Earl F. Rogers, engineer-director for the County Road Association of Michigan.

In a release by the association, Rogers charges "that the DNR's drastic action is being taken in advance of publication of recommendations of Oil and Gas Advisory Board supporting continued use of oil field brine for roads."

"The clouds of choking dust, which will result on many roads because of the DNR action, could be more environmentally damaging to local and Michigan residents than any possible adverse effects from brine use," Rogers said.

The DNR said it has chosen not to back oil field brines because they have cancer-producing agents in it.

Although the "Minuteman Movement" in the Belleville-Van Buren-Sumpter Township area is picking up momentum, there is always a need for more help. That's the from Belleville mayor Robert Tontalo who has this message for those that are still on the sidelines in this community-drive to get citizens involved: As we look around our community," says Mayor Tontalo, "we do see a lot of involvement in good causes through the churches and local services and other organizations such as the volunteer firemen, Boy Scouts, and others. But all too frequently these turn out to be the same hard workers year after year.

"I look upon the 'Minuteman Movement' to be an opportunity for others in the community who don't know where to become involved or who have never been asked to be involved to take that first step to where help is needed."

"Ten hours is about the time it takes to watch a couple of baseball games or three episodes of Dynasty on TV and that's not asking much from citizens in our community," Tontalo added. "I don't think any of us has forgotten President John F. Kennedy's words when he said, 'Don't ask what your country can do for you --ask what you can do for your country.'"

Those who haven't enlisted in the Minuteman Movement may do so by signing up at the following locations: Andrews Rexall Pharmacy; Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce, Belleville City Hall, Brass Belle Restaurant, Bud's TV, Continental Salon, Golden Boy Restaurant, Hamilton Hardware, Moose Lodge, Sumpter Township Hall, Tin Lizie, and the Van Buren Township Hall.

The Minuteman Movement was put into action thanks to the Van Buren-Belleville-Sumpter Civic Affairs Steering Committee and its chairman Charles Niemann who have actively been campaigning for more enlistees.

Romulus receives grant

For Wyndclift park

Congressman William D. Ford (D-Taylor) has announced the award of a $12,896 grant by the National Park Service for the purchase of eight acres for site of Wyndclift Park in Romulus.

The city of Romulus will meet with the residents of the Wyndclift Subdivision to determine how to develop this parkland.

"This is an example of the cooperative role that the federal government can play in assisting cities in providing important services, such as recreation, for their residents that municipalities might otherwise be unable to finance," Ford said.

"Unfortunately, this is one of the many grant programs that the Reagan Administration is seeking to terminate in its latest budget request," he added.

The Outdoor Recreation grant program is financed through the Land and Water Conservation Fund, which receives the bulk of its funding from the leasing of federal mineral and oil rights along the outer continental shelf.

No general revenue funds are allocated to this program.

Storm leaves little damage in area

The gale-like winds that whirled through the area last week left numerous tree branches, a few flooded streets and basements, but no injuries, according to local police.

A tornado did touch down in the Metropolitan Detroit area, ripping a roof of one building and injured four persons - none seriously.

"This time around I believe we were quite fortunate," said Belleville Police Chief Willard Dockett. "We did not get any casualty reports from the storm, although for a few moments there I bet there were alot of scared folks out there."

It's a deal

Romulus Mayor Beverly McAnally and Eastern Michigan University President Dr. John Porter signed an agreement last week to enter into a demand assessment for an adult learning center which would be located in Romulus. If the marketing study shows there is a demand for a higher learning center in the area, it is expected that EMU would begin work on University Park in the near future. Shown are (from left) McAnally, Dr. Bill Simmons and Porter.

Temple resigns Sumpter library post

Sumpter Township is in the market for a representative to the Fischer Library Commission. The controversy over funding for a computer system apparently took its toll in the form of a resignation by the township's rep, Dolores Temple.

Temple submitted her resignation to the township last week. The township board was to act on that resignation at its regular meeting last night.

In her written request to step down as the township's liaison to the library board, Temple stated, "I formally submit my resignation as commissioner to the tri-community library board. It was a pleasure to serve the township in that capacity, and good luck to you in your future endeavors."

The information about Temple's resignation was announced at the township's workshop meeting, and no action can be taken. However, clerk Joan Oddy did announce that she did have a candidate in mind to fill the position.

Van Buren and Belleville also have representatives on the library board. Belleville is represented by Burma Wertz, mayor pro temp of the City Council, while Van Buren's representative is Marilyn Montgomery.

Temple apparently became disenchanted with the present Sumpter board which refused to approve her recommendation to use some of the township's library funds to help finance a computer system for the Wayne-Oakland Federation of Library, a federation which the local library is affiliated with. Temple unsuccessfully argued that the computer system would open channels for local residents to have access to more than 3 million books.

Police investigate shooting of Huron man

Sumpter Township police are continuing their investigation into a shooting that left a 28-year-old New Boston man wounded from a gun blast to his abdomen and a second man with facial and body lacerations.

William James Grover was rushed to University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor after sustaining the wound during a quarrel with two other men Wednesday in Sumpter, according to Sumpter police Sgt. Wanda Elkins.

Police said that Grover apparently lent his alleged assailants an air compressor and went to the residence located in the 18000 block on Savage to retrieve his property. A quarrel ensued, according to police and the homeowner's wife came out of the residence with a handgun. According to reports the man placed the handgun in a back pocket and the two continued to quarrel. The quarrel ended in the shooting and with Grover taking the bullet in his stomach.

"Right now we're investigating the case," said Sgt. Elkins, "and no charges have been filed. There is a lot of confusing testimony and we're trying to unscramble it."

Police said that they do not know who actually pulled the trigger. Grover claims that the man shot him, but the homeowner's wife said she fired the shot. Grover did

Our Town

Here's what's happening in "Our Town" this week:

Girlstown Foundation is in need of foster homes for teenage girls. You may help by becoming a licensed foster parent. To learn more about the Girlstown's foster care program and the process involved, plan to attend a general information meeting on Wednesday, April 17 at 7 p.m.

The meeting will be conducted at the Girlstown Foundation, 11875 Quirk Road, in Belleville. Those interested may also contact Frances Thornton at Girlstown (697-7242) Tuesday-Thursday for further information.

William X. Kienzle, author of "The Rosary Murders" and six other mysteries set in the Metropolitan Detroit area, will be the guest speaker at the General Meeting of the Friends of the Library at 2 p.m., Sat., April 20 at Quirk Elementary School, located behind the Van Buren Township Hall.

Kienzle, ordained into the priesthood in 1954, spent 20 years as a parish priest. He was also editor-in-chief of The Michigan Catholic" and the MPLS Magazine in Minneapolis.

Upon leaving the priesthood, Kienzle launched his writing career. His latest book, "Sudden Death", has been chosen book of the month by the Mystery Guild.

The public is welcomed to attend the meeting. There is no charge.

Fischer Library also is celebrating National Library Week (April 14-21). Friends of the Library has planned a week-long program of interesting activities at the library located at 167 Fourth Street.

On Monday, April 15, there will be a showing of watercolors by Roy Pettus of Belleville. Pettus's vibrant hues are reminiscent of warm sunsets in New Mexico where he lived a good portion of his life.

On Tuesday, April 16, residents can "Meet Your Local Author" as Belleville's "Water Under the Bridge" co-authors, Cathy Horste and Diane Wilson, and Sumpter Township's Jeanne Hartwick, originator of "Sumpter, 1840-1910" and Lois Morioka of Van Buren, author of the historical novel, "The Long Road from White River", which deals with the internment of Japanese in this country during World War II. All of these authors have a wealth of information and interesting facts to offer residents.

On Wednesday, April 17, the September Days band will provide music as guests are invited to tour the library and enjoy hors d'oeuvres prepared by Belleville High students.

On April 18, winning photographs in the national photograph contest, sponsored by the National Library Association, will be placed on display and on Sat., April 20, the general meeting of the "Friends" will play host to Father William X. Kienzle, priest turned best-seller. Citizens may meet the author at 2 p.m. at Quirk School.

All fifth grade students at South Middle School in Belleville, and the students' parents who will be attending South next year, are invited to attend the May meeting of the South Parent-Teacher-Student organization.

"One of the topics of discussion will be funding for the camping program for next year's sixth graders," said Karen Berch, president of the SPTSO. The meeting will be held 7:30 p.m., Wed., May 8 in the school Media Center.

Also, Belleville South Middle School is ready to register acts for the school's "Talent School". Each act must contact at least one parent, teacher or student from the school.

Forms will be available starting April 15 at the school or by contacting Kathy Hammons, producer, at 699-4907. The Talent Show will be staged at 7 p.m., Friday, May 3 at the Belleville High School auditorium.

William B. Kahler, Jr., son of Edith Quijano of 2147 Nancy, Ypsilanti, has entered the United States Air Force's delayed enlistment program (DEP).

According to Sgt. David Claytor, the Air Force Recruiter here, Kahler's entry into the DEP allows the Air Force to schedule an opening for Kahler to attend basic training and be assigned to a job or skill area. Kahler is a 1985 graduate of Belleville High School and will enter the regular Air Force on Sept. 23.

Keller—the bottom line

The conduct of Van Buren Police Chief Len Keller has been the subject of considerable discussion following the leveling of assault and sexual harassment charges against the township's top law enforcement official.

Some township residents are prepared to call for Keller's ouster in light of the allegations originating from a former township police sergeant and two female members of the police reserve force. Others express fear that the situation will be covered up by township officials who wish to stifle negative publicity.

In the midst of an emotionally charged environment, it is appropriate to examine the facts surrounding this set of circumstances before jumping to conclusions.

The Wayne County Prosecutor's Office has dismissed a request for warrants pertaining to an incident between the police chief and Sgt. Mark Perkins on Feb. 24. Perkins has accused Keller of striking him at the scene of a fire. Keller has countered the charge by claiming he had suspended Perkins for insubordination the day before and had ordered Perkins off the premises.

Richard Padzieski, chief of the criminal division at the prosecutor's office, later dismissed all charges following a probe of the alleged scuffle. Padzieski told The Associated Newspapers, "the bottom line is that I can't find any criminal intent on the part of either party."

Now two other charges have surfaced against Keller, claims of sexual harassment. Terri Koski and Sandra Bozarth, both part-time police reserves, have filed separate lawsuits in Wayne County Circuit Court accusing the police chief of sexual harassment as the basis of unfounded criticism of their job performance.

Keller has refused to comment on any of the allegations, apparently on the advice of the township attorney. His failure to publicly defend himself, however, should not be construed as an admission of guilt. The only substantive statement of innocence or guilt in these matters will come from the courts, which will base decisions on facts and sworn testimony.

The charges and allegations directed at Keller are serious. Anytime a police official is publicly accused of harassment or assault, the matter cannot be taken lightly. But at the same time, the charges and allegations must not be misinterpreted as definitive statements of wrongdoing.

If Keller is found guilty of harassment or assault in a court of law, then the township board will be forced to re-evaluate his status on the police force. If his job performance as police chief is found to be negligent or inadequate to the point where the public safety is jeopardized, then again a performance review would be warranted.

But we must caution those who would seek to circumvent due process and convict the police chief of wrongdoing without a thorough review of all the facts. Justice will be best served through an objective judicial system, not through a public debate.

That is the bottom line.

Police or trustee?

To the Editor:

It is my style, having served on the Huron Board of Education and involved in many community functions, to speak only of the positive aspects of Huron Township. However, a couple of recent acts by the Huron Township Board has upset me and I feel the community needs to know what is going on and act to correct it.

At previous board meetings, the township board returned Mr. Harold Ashby to active duty as a police officer, after a prolonged medical leave. They also appointed Huron trustee Fred Ashby, the brother of Harold Ashby, as police commissioner. According to the minutes of the 3-13-85 meeting, he was given authority to "oversee and administer the Huron Township Police Dept., that commissioner being responsible for the daily affairs, morale and discipline within the department. All promotions, demotions, hiring and firing to be approved by the Huron Township Board."

At the regular meeting of the board held on 3-27-85, the following happened. When Mr. Ashby's part of the agenda came up, he left his seat and went in front of the board. He made it very clear that he was speaking as the new police commissioner. As his first proposal, he recommended promoting his brother Harold and another officer to sergeant and to hire two additional full-time officers.

After the debate, Mr. Ashby requested that he be the last to vote. With the vote tied three to three, he cast the final and decisive vote in favor of his own proposal. This is where I have my problem. It is not my intention to argue the merits of the proposal, rather to question the way it was handled.

By leaving his seat, Mr. Ashby made it clear he was acting as the police commissioner. Since part of his proposal involved his brother Harold, the minimum he should have done was to abstain. He did not, and as I said before, his vote was decisive.

My friends, this is wrong and cannot be tolerated. Consider what has been done. By making Mr. Ashby police commissioner, thereby the head of the police department and also allowing him to vote on his own proposals, he has become the most powerful member of the board.

Also consider the ramifications. The police department is an important and powerful body within the township. Since Mr. Ashby has indicated he intends to vote, he is able to recommend hiring, firing, raises and policy changes and then vote on his own recommendations. This simply gives him too much power and smacks of conflict of interest. Since his brother is on the police force, every decision he makes will raise ethical questions.

I suspect what Mr. Ashby did was legal, but was it ethical? Mr. Ashby should strongly reconsider his current position. I suggest he either resign as police commissioner or as trustee. He should not be allowed to perform both.

I urge the board to reconsider their recent action of promoting and hiring two new officers. By rescinding the original motion, they can still consider it later but with Mr. Ashby abstaining. Surely if the proposal has merit it should be able to stand on its own without Mr. Ashby's vote. If it cannot, then Mr. Ashby should reconsider proposing it.

Finally, I urge the citizens to raise their objections to the current situation. It simply cannot be allowed to continue.

Incinerator & library

To the Editor:

It was with great interest that I read the article by Sue McDonald regarding "Sanitation Authority Seeks Support for Tax," in the March 27 issue of the Westland Eagle.

This article seems to infer that the City of Westland might have a problem with a July election due to the fact that a special election is slated for April for a one mill increase to finance the development and operation of a city library. I personally do not understand what the special election on the library issue has to do with an election on the issue of re-opening our incinerator plant.

I feel that both issues should be brought to the voters in special elections. Isn't that what our democratic society is all about?

Look at government

TO THE EDITOR:

As a community coordinator for the Washington-based Close Up Foundation, I recently had the opportunity to work with approximately 396 high school students from across Detroit who traveled to the capital city to participate in the Close Up Foundation government studies program.

Over the past several weeks, Detroit students participated in a series of week-long seminars on the issues and processes of the federal government as they questioned members of Congress, political experts, lobbyists, journalists and policy-makers. The students behaved maturely and responsibly and were always prepared to ask intelligent and pertinent questions of the speakers.

Through the efforts of the schools, teachers, parents and the entire community, the students had the opportunity to travel to Washington. For many of the students and the teachers, the program would not be possible without fellowships provided each participating school which are supported by a host of business and philanthropic organizations in the area. In addition, several

My kind of town . . .

Picture Sinatra, belting out his version of "Chicago" singing . . . "My kind of town . . . Chicago is . . . my kind of town . . .".

People love to hear songs, immortalizing "their town", "I left my heart . . .", "New York, New York,". They impart a feeling of pride, persuading people to visit and enjoy. Local shops offer all kinds of memorabilia to visitors and tourists to help them "remember", shirts, ashtrays, mugs, . . . the list of trinkets goes on.

There is little new in this phenomenon, except that in my travels, I've now noticed souvenirs in smaller towns. Visit Kalamazoo center and you can buy a T-shirt that says "I love Kalamazoo".

Well folks, if Pittsburgh is in fact the "Number One" town in America, as a recent national survey claims, then I guess it's okay to "Love Kalamazoo".

Songs, souvenirs, and sayings, are all signs of pride in one's community, and say we feel good about ourselves and about our town.

Some cities boast man-made attractions such as, the Statue of Liberty, the Golden Gate bridge, or the Washington monument. Some offer natural beauty, some offer "lots of things to see and do", shops, restaurants and entertainment.

Those living in communities which are home to well-known attractions, usually take pride in what they have and want to share it. They complain about tourist traffic, but they enjoy knowing they have something others are attracted to, and no doubt recognize the stimulus of tourism to the local economy.

When I look at the communities served by these newspapers in Western Wayne County with the aforementioned in mind, I find a "mixed bag". I see no "Disney World", "Empire State Building", or

"Fisherman's Wharf."

I do, however, notice a growing list of once-a-year events that bring people together in a spirit of community . . . Belleville's Strawberry Festival, Westland's Summer Festival, Wayne's Fall Festival and so on.

A few years ago, I recall, there were a burst of bumper stickers from various communities of the "It's great to live in Wayne" ilk. But what there is a definite lack of, as it seems, is a coordinated, year-round effort to hold and attract people.

Perhaps we don't have anything to be proud of, perhaps we don't feel good enough about ourselves, and what we have that we want to share it with others, or maybe we simply haven't done our homework.

Perhaps there are not enough people who are willing to work to enhance the image of our communities. Obviously this is a job for the other guy and not our responsibility.

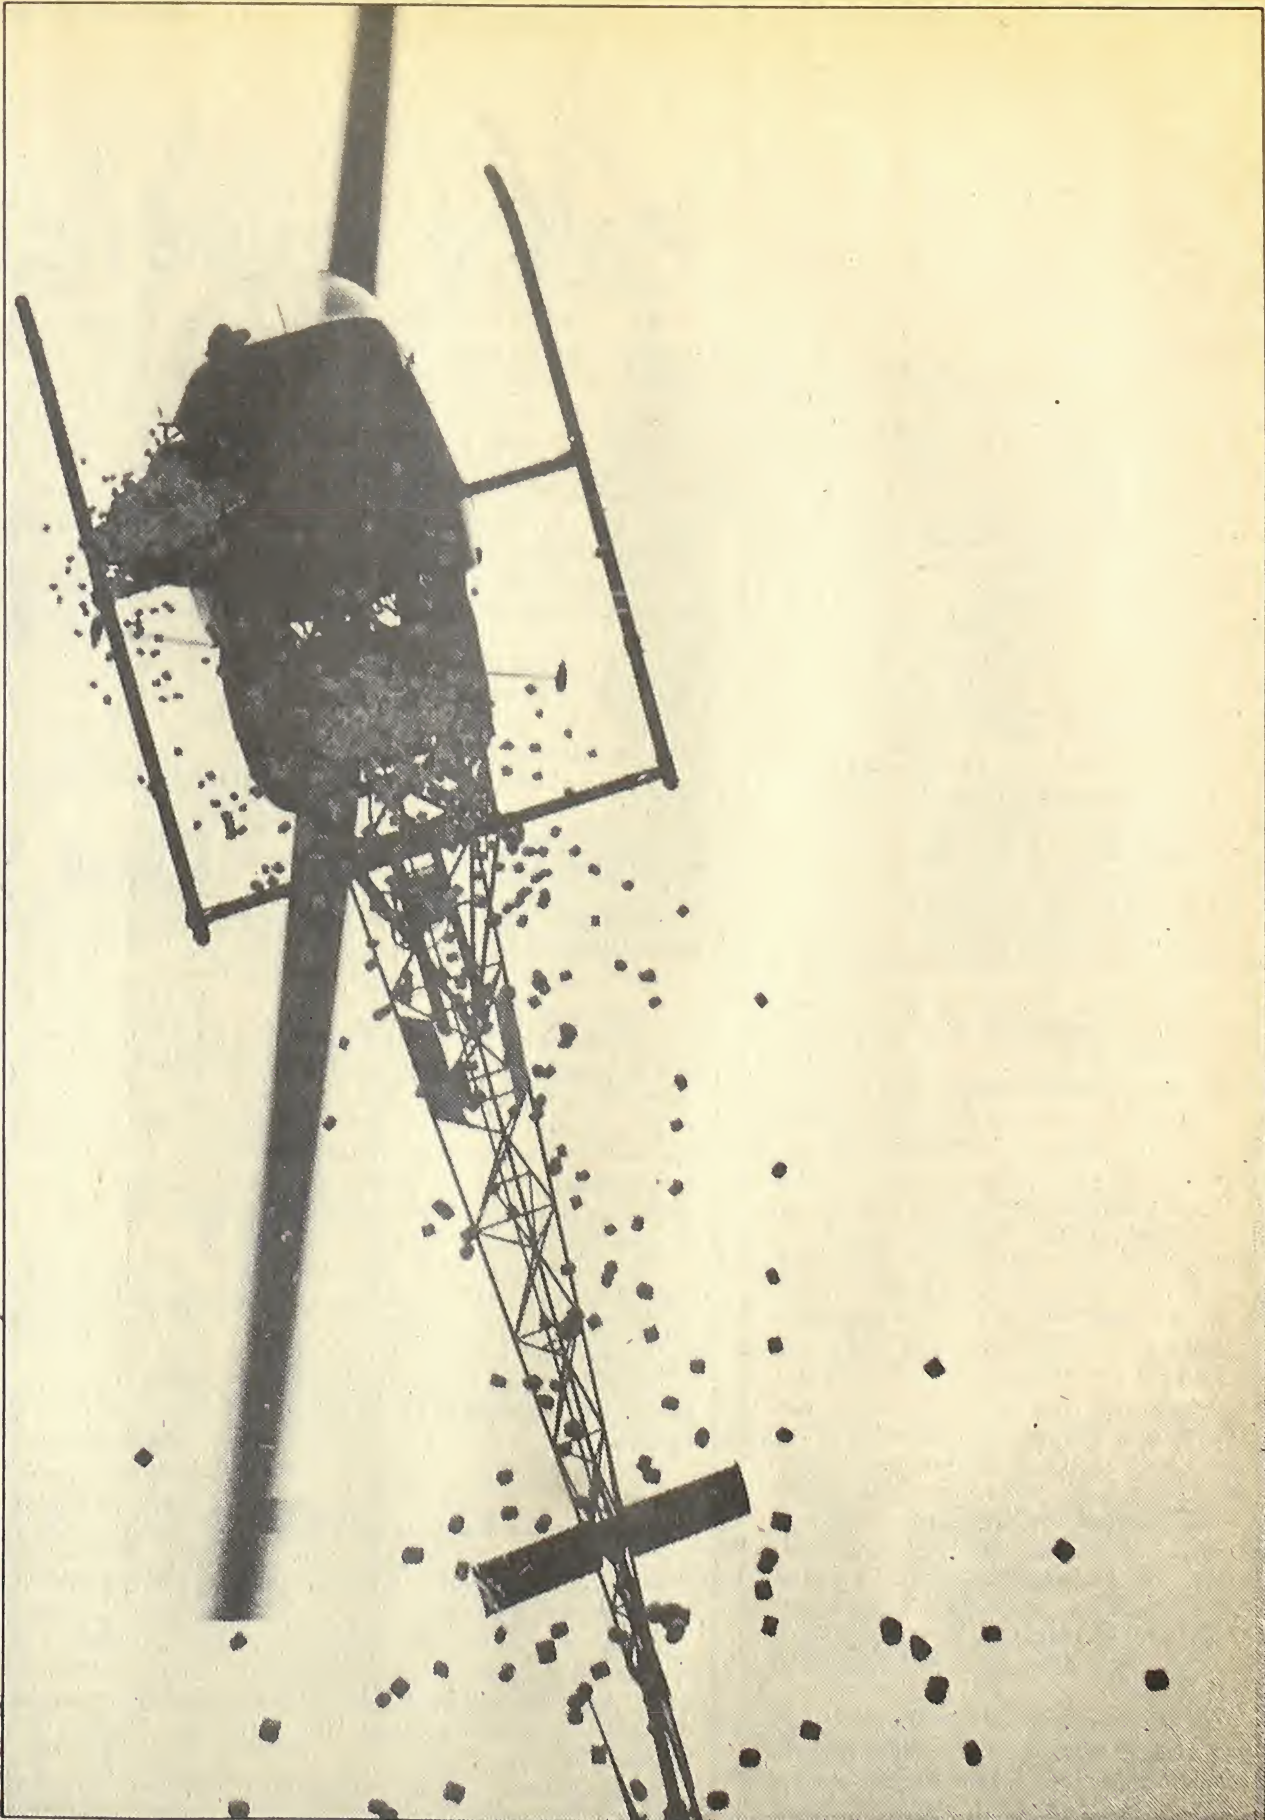

Some work hard and long to make these once-a-year events better each season. Some groups, such as the Wayne Merchants Association, a part of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, are mapping out year round promotions carefully spaced and timed to "bring people to town".

There are even occasional super-stars like new Buick dealer John Rogin who bring notoriety to his business and the community by "giving away cash". As he gave total strangers money last week during "Moonlight Madness" in Wayne, he told people to "go spend it with local merchants" the world has too few John Rogins.

Officials not at fault

To the Editor:

I was surprised to read the Inkster coach's comments in your paper. I did attend the game and enjoyed every minute of it. I believe though, that the Inkster coach is forgetting the facts as they were.

For instance, at the end of the third period the score board showed 4 fouls called – two on each team. It was at this time that Robichaud was building its 17-point lead. Inkster battled back to a 4-point deficit and appeared to be ready to pass Robichaud when the coach called time out.

It was at this time, with less than two minutes to go, that Inkster was forced to foul because they were out of time outs. Inkster, my favorite team I might add, eventually lost on the score board and I would like to think that they didn't lose, but that time ran out on us.

The two officials at the game, I thought, did a good job at letting the teams decide the game. The players for the most part, appeared to agree with the officials and I noticed the officials talking to each player as he called the fouls or during time outs, I presume to tell them what was called or going on.

What I'm trying to say is this, even if the officials were from California I don't think they influenced the game in any way so let's leave it at that. Besides I can't wait until next year when I know Inkster will win the game.

Citizens watching

To the Editor:

In reference to the article "No Charges Will Be Filed Against Keller, Officer" in the Ypsilanti Press dated 3-26, isn't it interesting, rather disgusting, that a special prosecutor says he doesn't want to bother the criminal justice system with the assault allegations between Chief Keller and former Sgt. Mark Perkins?

In another article in the Ann Arbor News dated 3-27, the detective that did the investigation doesn't even think this is right. I agree with Sgt. Jack Beeson. I believe, too, the prosecutor's office is refusing to charge the chief because they fear a political hot potato. There is no room for politics here.

We township residents pay high taxes – what the hell for? It's sad, Sgt. Perkins is not only on suspension, but fired while Keller is still in office and playing silly games.

According to more recent articles in the Associated Newspapers Inc. 3-27, The De-taxes that keep our town alive, what they do little of, is give of their time. They seem to put a great deal of distance between themselves and civic and community involvement.

If the cities and townships of Western Wayne County are ever to survive, prosper and grow, then those who live and work here must work together to enhance their image.

They must identify and promote those things that it has to offer. Where it has little to attract and hold, it must create something, otherwise the status quo will be forever preserved.

troit News 3-30-85 and the Ypsilanti Press 4-1-85, ex-officer Richard Waddell and wife Marilyn are suing Chief Keller. Teresa Koski is suing Chief Keller for sexual harrassment. Sandra Bazorth is suing also.

I certainly hope now that the township board, the prosecutors, the union (those who we, the taxpayers pay their wages) will take a good look at our township police chief and cut out the whitewash.

I commend the above female officers for standing up and wanting to change the way Chief Keller runs his business as police chief. Good luck ladies, good luck to Waddell and wife also.

We can't forget Sgt. Perkins. It's time we, the residents of Van Buren Township, publicly lend our support. I hope the next article I read isn't the termination of Officer Koski.

Ford termed the funds a "good start," but claimed the monies are inadequate to meet the problem.

"While I am fully aware of the budget deficit this nation is facing," the Democrat said, "adequate funding of justice assistance could make an important difference in preventing and responding to crime in our cities."

In a speech delivered recently at a regional conference of law enforcement officials in Detroit, Ford criticized the Reagan administration for failure to back up its tough talk on crime.

"If the administration is really serious about wanting to help law enforcement agencies adopt new approaches to problems, then $67 million for a national program simply is not enough," Ford said.

He singled out moves to cut the U.S. Customs Service. "This administration has repeatedly tried to weaken the U.S. Customs Service," Ford told the law enforcement officials. "Fortunately the Congress has been successful in blunting these efforts."

According to Ford, the administration has attempted to eliminate customs' positions every year since 1983. In 1983 Congressional action saved 2,700 positions, Ford claimed.

"These customs' office positions the administration proposes to abolish are extremely important in our war against drug trafficking," Ford said.

Beyer Memorial gives blood tests

If you've ever wondered what your type is, Beyer Memorial Hospital can supply the answer.

In recognizing National Medical Laboratory Week in April, the Beyer Laboratory will offer residents a chance to learn what their blood type is. The free tests will be offered at the hospital from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday, April 15, Tuesday, April 16, Thursday, April 18, and Friday, April 19. On Wednesday, April 17, the hours will be 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Anyone interested in the free service should come to the hospital's main lobby, where they will be directed to the laboratory. The procedure involves drawing a small amount of blood. Test results will be mailed to the person's home.

"We're offering free blood typing to the community because of person's blood type is an extremely important fact to know and many of us don't know our type," said Noel Bogardus, Beyer laboratory manager. "Our screening gives people an easy way to discover whether they are O negative or A positive.

"Beyond the blood typing we'd like community residents to get acquainted with the lab here at Beyer. Almost every patient has some type of laboratory work done as part of their hospital stay and yet people rarely know much about the laboratory. This is a chance to see the lab and get to know the people here."

Beyer Memorial Hospital is located at 135 S. Prospect in Ypsilanti.

Frost law in effect

Frost Law road weight restrictions on all Wayne County roads have taken effect in accordance with the state-wide Frost Freeze System.

Effective Wednesday Feb. 27, the Wayne County Office of Public Services imposed spring thaw weight reductions on all roads throughout Wayne County. Road officials, recognizing the adverse condition of the roads due to spring break-up, have reduced vehicle axle loads.

These road weight limitations principally apply to trucks and heavy vehicles, not to every day motorists. Restrictions will remain in effect until further notice by the Office of Public Services.

For further information, call the Wayne County Roads Department, Central Maintenance Weighmaster at 942-9920.

CHIROPRACTIC OUTLOOK

By Dr. Thomas Anderson

WHY HAVE A BACK CHECKUP?

Troubled with nerve or low back pain? Wince when you have to lift, bend or stand up? The cause could be spinal subluxations in which one or more of your vertebrae are misaligned. A chiropractic exam of your back may locate abnormal pressures on nerves, nerve trunks, muscles or related tissues. A spinal checkup offers a clear picture of any neuromusculo-skeletal disorders causing pain, discomfort or even emotional reactions.

Lack energy? Tire easily? Muscles ache? Nervous upset? The cause may be a disorder or one or more of your spinal segments. Your chiropractor includes a thorough back checkup as part of a total body examination to locate the cause of the disorders. Gentle chiropractic manipulation helps your spinal column shape back into proper alignment.

‘B’ better than ever

Awesome describes All-Area Class B Team

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Better than ever... That's the best way to describe The Associated Newspapers' 1985 Class B All-Area High School Basketball Team.

And for 10 good reasons. Here they are: Sherard Lloyd, Anthony White, Mark Merriman, Jarvis Walker, Randy Roland, Dennis McIntosh, Omar Galbreath, William Springer, Jesse Hardy and Tony Ellis.

In that line-up is the make-up of a team that has the realistic potential to score 100 points per game. Most of the players have scored 20 or better points per games during the recently completed campaign. That, dear cage fan, can be "awesome" when viewed with the total production of the team.

So bring on Flint Beecher, the reigning Class B state champ.

Or Saginaw Buena Vista, the state runner-up.

In fact, with this ANP line-up and Coaches George Thompson Jr. of Inkster High fame, and Bill Ayler, of Robichaud High, two men selected as the ANP's "Coaches of the Year", we're also ready for Flint Northwestern.

Flint Northwestern, if you happened to miss the state finals, captured the State Class A title.

When you consider that Lloyd, White, Springer and Hardy formed the nucleus of an Inkster team that posted a 20-2 won-lost record and claimed the prestigious Suburban Athletic Conference championship with an untarnished 10-0 record and put together an 18-game winning streak which included victories over Buena Vista, that should tell you something about the talent of the Inkster club and the All-Area's over-all strengths.

But that's not all.

Neighboring Robichaud, whose team under the guidance of sophomore coach Ayler, rewrote the history books at that Dearborn Heights-based high school, also had a wealth of talent this year. Ayler's cagers won the regional championship, a first for the school and went on to string together 11 wins thanks to the efforts of such talents as Jarvis Walker, Omar Galbreath, Dennis McIntosh - and others.

But that's also not all. The ANP All-Area team also has drafted some outstanding talent like Cherry Hill's Merriman, a forward-center who led the Spartans and Coach Don Waxer to the Tri-River Conference championship. And, Randy Roland, New Boston Huron's explosive center-forward who shot the eyes out of the nets this season. Th is additional evidence that this 'B' tea is better than ever.

Now let's go over some of the candidates's individual statistics:

LLOYD, who is a 6-6 senior that co-captained the Vikings this year, is a highly-recruited cager that any college would like to have in its line-up in the fall. He averaged 22 points per game, 14 rebounds and five blocked shots. "Sherard really is the type of player a coach dreams about. He can do a lot of things to the opposition. And college scouts have been taking a good look at him all year. You can use Sherard in the center or as a forward. He's just one heck of a ball player," said Coach Thompson.

WHITE is a 6-4 senior who has three years of varsity experience behind him and an excellent college career ahead of him. Anthony's last second baskets accounted for four Viking victories. He comes through in the clutch. "We knew if we needed a game-deciding basket, if anyone was going to do it for us it would be Anthony," Thompson noted. White and Lloyd were unanimous SAL all-conference picks. White, at 6-4, handled the wing guard slot and also played forward. He ended his prep career with 18 points per game, six assists and nine rebounds per. He's been very busy over the holidays traveling to college campuses to determine which he likes the best.

MERRIMAN stands 6 feet, 5 inches and ranks with the greats at Cherry Hill. He has been compared to Bobby Fowler who captured all-state honors before heading for the University of Kentucky. Mark chalked up a 22.7 point average during the recent campaign and he also counted 13 rebounds and six assists. Named to just about every 'all-team' in the metropolitan area, Mark also is undecided where he will attend college this fall.

"Merriman was the key to our game," said Coach Don Waxer. "And he is the kind of player who has that ability to lead and carry a load during a crisis." Cherry Hill finished the year with a 16-5 won-lost record, the best in recent years.

WALKER was the team leader at Robichaud. The 6-2 senior, who packed three years of experience into his prep career, collected 448 points from the field and 112 at the free throw line. He also led the team in steals (74) and with assists (144).

Walker led our team in almost every category," said coach Ayler. "There is no doubt that he was the team leader. He also scored 30 or more points in four games - against Highland Park, Ann Arbor Pioneer, Detroit Renaissance and Dearborn Heights Annapolis.

ROLAND amassed 525 points and averaged 15 rebounds for New Boston Huron's Chiefs who unfortunately had their problems finding their way into the winning column. They were 4-17 on the year.

"Randy is an excellent all-around player and an extremely tough man to stop," said Coach Terry Sumenick. "Just ask Romulus." (Roland scored 30-plus in both encounters of a different kind against Romulus).

Randy also moved into the second place slot as the school's most productive scorer. The top rung is still reserved for Rick Wasilewski who played for the Chiefs and Coach Dave Court back in the late 1960s and ended his prep career with state honors in 1970.

Roland also is undecided on where he wants to continue his education and cage career.

GALBREATH, a 6-1 senior with two years of

Rains ruin practice

Although most coaches and high school teams in the area are eager to launch the 1985 high school spring season, they are not finding any cooperation from that perennial Michigan spring pest - the weather. Inclement and unseasonal cold weather has hampered spring training in all of the major sports, according to many of the local prep coaches.

"We have never had it so bad," moaned one of the baseball coaches who said that if the rains continue to plague this area that the baseball teams would do better going out for swimming instead.

Most players and teams are scheduled for action on Monday when students were to report back to their classrooms. See WEATHER Page 3-B

ANP pays tribute to 2 Class B coaches

Ayler earns honor

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

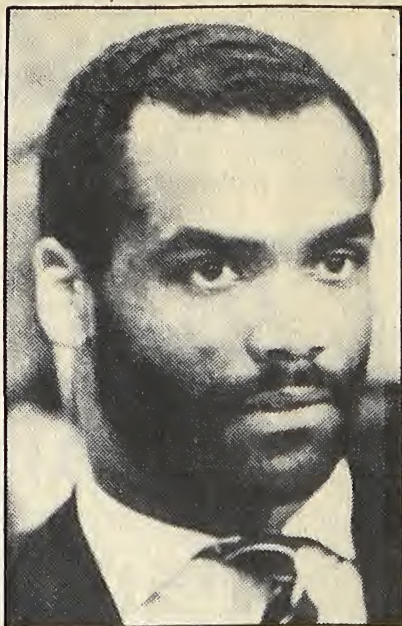

The winds of change have definitely swept through the Suburban Athletic Conference. Once powerful River Rouge and the almighty Highland Park have been relegated to roles of "also rans" and have found more than their match in Inkster High and Robichaud.

And because Inkster High's Coach George Thompson, Jr. and his counterpart at Robichaud, Bill Ayler, have had unprecedented seasons on the hardwood during the recently-concluded campaign, The Associated Newspapers, because of the two coaches' accomplishments, also have decided to do something unprecedented. They have decided to honor both cage strategists as the ANP's "Coaches of the Year."

Ayler, in his sophomore year as the Bulldog mentor, guided his cagers from a second place finish (to Inkster) in the Suburban Athletic Conference to the Class B District, Regional championships and then went on to oust Detroit Benedictine in the state quarter-finals before losing to Saginaw Buena Vista in the state semi-finals.

Finishing with an enviable 21-5 won-lost record after a mediocre 13-10 rookie season, Ayler attributes his team's cometic success to a change of philosophy.

Bill Ayler

"I strongly believe in the team concept, of accentuating the positives." See AYLER Page 3-B

Thompson lauded

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

In a coaching career that spans approximately a quarter of a century, George Thompson Jr. has boasted some outstanding players and teams.

But the veteran Inkster High cage coach admits that his 1984-85 ball club ranks with the best, if not the best over-all team he has ever coached.

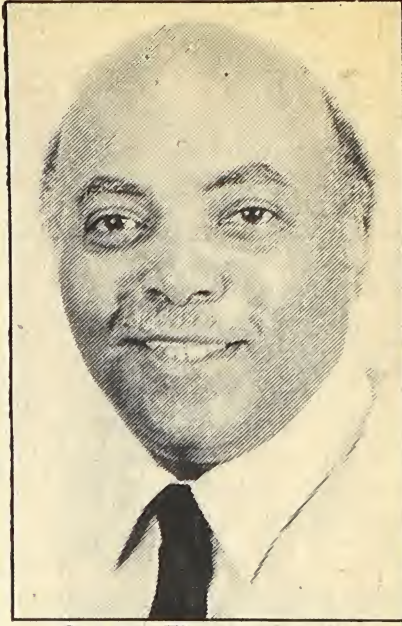

Thompson's Vikings reached new horizons this year as they captured the elite Suburban Athletic Conference basketball championship with a perfect 10-0 record.

And when you consider that schools such as Highland Park, River Rouge, Ecorse, Willow Run and Robichaud are affiliated with the SAC, one realizes that Thompson's accomplishment was no small feat.

In fact, only one other team has ever compiled an undefeated SAC record, and that was the 1975 Highland Park team which also captured the Class A state championship.

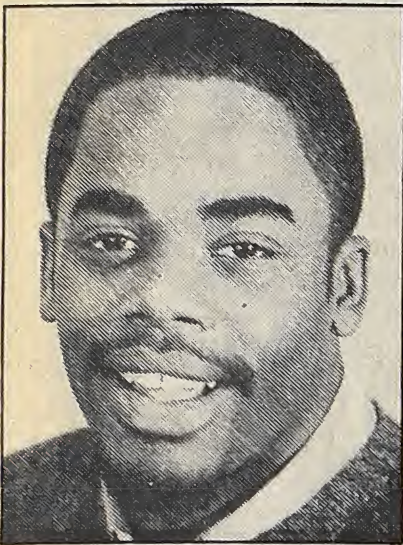

"It's tough to play in this league when you realize you can't afford a letdown and not be blown right off the court if you do," Thompson noted. "You have to be ready each week. You have to come to play as the cliché goes."

Top Tiger swimmers honored

Sixteen members of the Belleville Tiger Swim Club were recently singled out for honors for their outstanding performances during the 1984-85 season. The honors were bestowed upon the young swimmers at the club's annual Awards' Banquet.

The recipients of the awards include Todd Carrico and John Magdowski, in the 8 and Under Boys Division, Philip Bongiorno and Charles Dougherty, 9 and 10 boys, Jennifer Snure and Kristin Curtis, 9 and 10 Girls.

Also honored were Trevor Yeary and Tony Burke, 11 and 12 Boys, Melanie Merritt and Amber Rusk, 11 and 12 Girls, Eric Snider and Ari Sahrakar, 13 and 14 Boys, and Jennifer Owsley and Beckey Preston, 11 and 14 Girls.

The club also selected Karen Kotlarczyk and David Stacey as the recipients for the "Coaches' Award."

Belleville Tiger Swim Club award recipients

Belleville youngsters who wish to register for the Tiger spring and summer programs may do so from 5 to 6:30 p.m., April 22, 23 or 24 at the Belleville High School swim pool.

For further information about the Tiger Swim Club please telephone 595-3917 or 721-5500.

The Tigers also recently competed in the Junior Olympics staged at Oakland Community College and sponsored by McDonald's Restaurants.

Coach Vicchy took 17 swimmers to the meet and returned with a handful of medals including three first places.

Eric Lawson captured a gold medal in the 200-yard individual medley; second in the 100-yard backstroke, and a sixth place in the 200-yard breaststroke.

Greg Lynch also had a pair of gold-medal winning efforts as he touched in first in the 200-yard individual medley and was also first in the 100-yard butterfly.

Snure picked up a fourth place in the 50-yard breaststroke and a fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke, while teammate Karen Kotlarczyk also placed first in the 200-yard freestyle and was runner-up in the 200-yard breaststroke. She finished third in the 100-yard backstroke and fourth in the 500-yard freestyle.

Phil Bongiorno claimed a fifth place in the 50-yard butterfly.

Romulus to offer golf instructions

The Romulus Parks and Recreation Department is hosting a golf instruction seminar which will be conducted on Tuesdays and Wednesdays beginning April 30 at Shady Hollow Golf Course.

There is a $3 per class registration fee, and the classes are limited to five golfers per class.

The classes will be conducted from 9 to 9:30 a.m. Tuesday and Wednesday mornings and from 4-4:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. There will also be instructions available at 5:30 to 6 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

Golfers who are interested for signing up for these instructions should contact the recreation department at 941-0666, extension 254. If there is enough interest, recreation officials say that they may add more classes. An advance payment of three weeks in fees will be required the first morning of the initial class.

ANP All-Area wrestlers next

Next week the Associated Newspapers will continue with its "Parade of Prep Stars" as it unveils its 1985 All-Area High School Wrestling team.

Thirteen outstanding prep grapplers, many of whom captured Class A state honors, will be featured on these pages along with a "Coach of the Year".

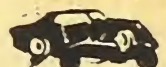

So don't miss this exciting climax to the high school wrestling season.

Class B team can do it anywhere

varsity experience, and an "accomplished performer" who piled up 414 points from the field and made 65 free throws, came on strong in the second half of the season. A polished guard who had 122 assists and 45 steals, Omar also accounted for 30 or more points in three games including the victories over Detroit Southeastern, Ecorse and against a highly-touted Southgate Aquinas.

"There are a lot of colleges that would like to get Omar's signature on a letter of intent," commented Ayler. "He's going to be heard from, believe me."

SPRINGER is an aggressive guard who has starred on the gridiron as well as hardwood. A senior co-captain who specializes in defense and ruining the opposition's zone defenses with his uncanny way of cutting through and finding the way to the basket, Springer has been labeled by Coach Thompson as "The Zone Buster". Thompson went on to say that "Springer is a coach's delight because you can leave him in charge of running the drills and know the job will be done."

MCINTOSH, a 6-2 senior is considered Robichaud's "top jumper" whose all-around abilities provided the Bulldogs with a multi-dimensional assault. Dennis's stats include 220 points from the field and 68 from the foul line. He also had 50 assists, 45 steals and 15 blocked shots. "Dennis is considered the team's second best all-around athlete," said Ayler. "There was always a big void to fill when you took him out of the game."

HARDY is the only junior to break into this year's elite line-up. The 6-0 guard is considered the Vikings' defensive wizard as he is assigned the toughest player to guard. Like Buena Vista's All-State cager, Mark Macon who was one of the leading scorers in the state this season. Hardy held the prolific scorer to 12 points in their first encounter and gave up 18 the second time around. Both decisions moreover went into the Inkster victory column.

Jesse also had 12 points per game as well as five steals and a score of assists. "But he was just devastating on defense," said Thompson. "And his stamina is fantastic."

ELLIS is an unsung hero of the Spartan cage team. But his importance to Waxer's strategy was crucial. When rivals double-teamed Merriman it was up to Ellis to get the job done and he did. "Ellis made things happen when we needed it the most," Waxer added, "and you could always rely on him to come through for you."

Volleyball champs

The Westland Parks and Recreation's volleyball season ended recently with the women's Inter-City Volleyball tournament title being awarded to manager Trudy Watkins' club.

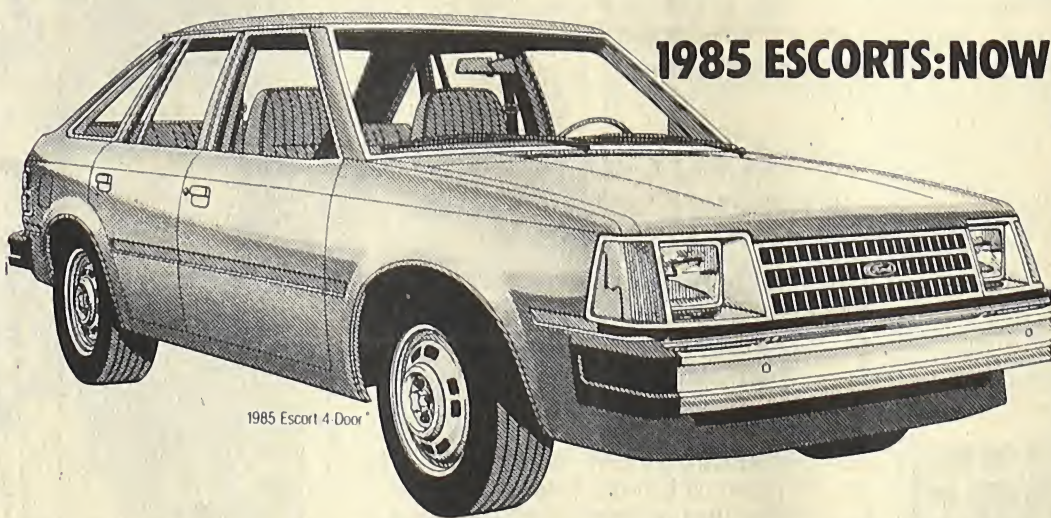

The team which competes in the Division 'A' League at the Bailey Center, completed round-robin play with a perfect 8-0 over-all record to capture the top honors and the first place trophy.

The tournament featured some of the top teams in the state, including clubs representing Troy, Berkley and Royal Oak.

The tournament was sponsored by the Inter-City Recreation Association.

Burger King comes to aid of area soccer

For the third consecutive year, Burger King Restaurants have joined the American Youth Soccer Organization in a fund-raising program for the children who are AYSO members.

Burger King has donated 21,000 coupon books to the fund-raising effort. Each coupon book contains coupons redeemable at participating restaurants and local grocers. The merchandise value of the coupon book is over $13. The books are being sold for $2. with all proceeds going to purchase soccer equipment, maintain the playing fields, over-all improvement and to hold special clinics for kids.

The American Youth Soccer Organization has been active in this area for the past seven years. It currently provides organized athletic competition for over 600 area youth between the ages of six and 17. These young soccer enthusiasts are organized into 47 teams of 15 players. Nationally, AYSO has 265,000 boys and girls participating in 33 states.

In the past years, the fund-raising programs have raised over $50,000, which was used directly to purchase uniforms and soccer equipment.

The fund-raising program was kicked off on April 8 and will continue through May 5. Coupon books may be purchased from participating restaurants or by contacting Dave Mertz at 374-0052.

In addition to providing AYSO with the coupon books, the participating Burger King Restaurants and the Pepsi Bottlers are also contributing prizes which will be awarded to the AYSO youngsters involved in the fund-raiser. The prizes, awarded on the basis of coupon book sales, include AYSO patches, duffle bags, a Commodore 64 computer, a 10-speed bike, a portable AM/FM stereo cassette recorder, a Sony Walkman Radio, tickets to Cedar Point, and a $25 gift certificate to Sportsland.

Baseball sign-up

The Dad's Athletic Club of Westland will conduct softball registration from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. Sat., April 20 at the Dorsey Center, 32715 Dorsey Road.

Club officials stress that softball players are needed for the junior boys division (7 to 9); Intermediate boys (10-13); senior boys (14-18); junior girls (7-11) and for senior girls (12-18).

Registration fees are $15 per child or $30 per family. Fees include the costs of softball shirts and a trophy per participant. There is also a picnic planned at the end of the summer season.

All practices and games will be played at the Adams Junior High diamond, located on Palmer Rd. No tryouts are required to make the teams, and all games will be played Monday through Thursday.

Those players who are registering for the first time should bring with them at the time of registration their birth certificate.

All players - boys and girls - will be assigned to teams by draw, based on their ages.

For further information, please contact Merle Sampson at 728-7746.

Hail, Cesarz

Among the five athletes who were singled out during the winter sports season for their academic achievements included former Westland John Glenn star, Kim Cesarz.

Cesar, a senior, carried a 3.39 grade point average.

Also repeating on the All-Great Lakes Conference's "Academic Team" were Kurt Stevens(Wyoming Rogers), Sandy Davison (Escanaba), Andi Fron (Divine Child), and Karen Kramer (Portland St. Patrick).

Former Ferris College quarterback and student coach Rob Suida, a Westland John Glenn alumni, will be serving as a player-coach for the Northern Lights football team in Oulu, Finland this summer. Suida's Finland connection was arranged by former coaching great Sam Ketchman, president of Athletic Enterprises of Sarasota, Florida.

Softballers needed

Attention Class B and Class C caliber softball teams in the area. Teams are needed for a pre-season softball tournament which will be staged on Saturday and Sunday, April 27 and 28 at the Anderson Fields in Wayne.

There is a $100 entry fee due on or before April 18. The tournament is sponsored by the Gorilla Engine/Petro Softball, Inc., Wayne.

For further information, please telephone 728-1054 or 729-1250 after 6 p.m.

ing the 'we' and playing down the 'me'," Ayler said. "I believe that's why we managed to do what we did in a span of two short years."

Ayler also credits the team's success to his assistant coach, Jeff Driems, who has played a crucial role developing the over-all team talent.

The 31-year-old former Detroit Northwestern High cage star, Ayler attended the University of Michigan on a basketball scholarship. Employed as a student counselor at Detroit Mackenzie High School, Ayler is enthusiastically awaiting the start of the 1985-86 campaign.

Thompson

Thompson's team not only captured the SAC title this year, but his Vikings set a school record when they put together an 18-game winning streak that was snapped in the finals of the Class B district playoffs by none other than natural rival, Robichaud, a team it had twice defeated in the conference.

I sincerely felt that we had a chance to go all the way this year," Thompson said. "Unfortunately, fate would have it otherwise."

Romulus seeking players

There is still time to sign up for the Romulus Youth Softball summer leagues.

Players between the ages of 8 and 18 will have the opportunity to compete in various leagues if they register before the July start-up time.

Here are the league break-downs according to age:

The 8-and -10 year olds will be placed in the Minor League. The league emphasizes learning the fundamentals of the game-not the won-lost column. And anyone who is registered will have an opportunity to play.

The 11-and-13 year olds (Majors) also do not keep track of their league standings, and the stress is placed on improvement of players' skills and knowledge of the game.

The 14-18 year old group is placed in the senior league where everyone plays, but the league is very competitive.

Registration is being accepted during the month of April and there is a $15 per player or $25 per family limit to sign up. The fee will also include a free softball shirt and cap for the player.

Games will be staged during the evening hours at Cory School, beginning July 1 and will run for six weeks. Practices will also start in May, but the practice schedules will be determined by managers and coaches of the teams.

Managers and umpires are needed for teams and those who have a sincere interest in handling a club should contact the parks and recreation department by telephoning 941-0666, extension 254.

Romulus South Little League and Romulus North Little League are also planning to field teams for the 1985 campaign. Players who reside south of the I-94 Expressway must register with South officials and those who are north of the Expressway must contact the officials in the North Little League.

All children within the city of Romulus who will be 6 years old by August 1, 1985 may register to play in the city's Tee Ball programs. The Tee-Ball teams are made up of youngsters who are 6,7 and 8 years old.

Lally in Wyandotte bout

Westland boxer 'is ready'

Mickey "Sneaky Pea" Goodwin will return to the local fight scene on April 29 at Yack Arena in Wyandotte. Mickey is the current Michigan State Light Heavyweight champion and is looking to defend his title in June against Arthel Lawhorn.

Goodwin and Lawhorn fought to a draw at Cobo Hall on January 31, 1985.

On the April card Goodwin will box Daryl Spain of Cleveland, Ohio. Spain is an aggressive, tough fighter with a 10-4 over-all record.

Also appearing on the card will be the popular Dino Guzzo of Gibraltar, Michigan, a good-looking cruiserweight with a 5-0 record. Guzzo will meet Vernon Bridges of Flint in a six-round bout.

Also appearing in six rounds will be Steve Darnell of Livonia and Brad Lally of Westland fame. Their opponents will be named later.

Three four rounders will close out the card with a total of 40 rounds of professional boxing.

Boxing will begin at 8 p.m.

Tickets are $20 for ringside seats and $12 for reserved. General admission tickets are $10. Tickets are available at the Yauck Arena and all Ticket outlets.

Makeup artist coming to town

The Plymouth Symphony League Nightingales will present "An Evening with Jeffrey Bruce" at 7:30 p.m. April 18 at the Plymouth Hilton Ballroom. Bruce, who offers his own nationally distributed line of cosmetics and skin-care products, appears regularly on the syndicated talk show "Hour Magazine." He also is a frequent guest and co-host on the "Kelly and Company" show.

Bruce will autograph copies of his latest book, "About Face" and will provide a personal make-over to the winner of a raffle conducted that evening. Tickets are priced at $5 and are available by calling 455-0075 (ticket proceeds will be donated to the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra).

After touring for Estee Lauder and working as director of cosmetics for Revlon, Bruce turned to a star-studded private practice in Los Angeles. He now lives in New York City.

Bruce's makeup philosophy includes the following beliefs:

- there is no such thing as a natural beauty
- you need more, not less, makeup as you age
- dermatologists are usually a woman's worst friend
- kitchen cosmetics belong in the refrigerator
- "miracle" wrinkle creams aren't.

Romulus band maintains ranking

Success is becoming habit forming for the Romulus Junior High School Symphonic Band, directed by Dick Kruse.

For the past 10 years the Romulus band has consistently achieved the highest rating of any junior high band in the metropolitan Detroit area. This year proved no exception to their string of success as the band recently earned its sixth consecutive number one rating at the District Band Festival.

The Symphonic Band earned 17 A's and 3 B's in the competition as all four judges accorded the band number one ranking.

Following is a listing of the members of the top-rated symphonic band:

Anniversary

Approximately 200 seniors and handicappers recently gathered in Westland to celebrate the fifth anniversary of Conquest, a tabloid publication which reports on seniors' and handicappers' issues and events. Cutting the cake are Frank Moore (left), distribution manager; Shirley Nichols, public relations director of the Bavarian Inn in Frankenmuth, and Carrie Young, executive editor.

Huron offers comedy

The Huron Civic Theatre will perform the Neil Simon comedy "Barefoot in the Park" on April 19-20 and 26 through 28 at Huron High School in New Boston. The show will mark the group's final production of the season.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. for the Friday and Saturday shows and 3 p.m. for the Sunday matinee. Tickets, priced at $4.50 for adults and $3.50 for students and senior citizens, will be available at the door.

Laurie Elliott Perrin, a 1978 graduate of Huron High, and Conrad Szybisty of Redford are cast as the young couple on their own in New York. Other cast members include Mary Jane Roth, Rob Eagal, Rich Town and Terry Nichols.

Food to be displayed

Food fanciers will have an opportunity to view more than 400 hors d'oeuvres, cakes and pastries created by noted Michigan chefs and aspiring students at the 12th annual Hospitality Industry Culinary Arts Salon, scheduled April 14 and 15 in Cobo Hall.

The public can look at the salon entries from noon to 6 p.m. April 14 and noon to 8 p.m. April 15. Admission is $3. Students from the William Ford Vocational Tech Center in Westland and professional chef Karen Przybylowicz of Mama and Pasta's Restaurant in Wayne will be among the exhibitors.

Although the food displayed is made of edible products, the culinary art is meant to be viewed, not eaten. A clear gelatin will be applied to many of the exhibits as a preservative, sealing them from the air and preventing discoloration.

Industry sings

The 28th annual "Industry Sings" will be presented at 8 p.m. April 13 at Ford Auditorium. Featured performers will be the Gentlemen Songsters, General Motors Employee's Chorus, Detroit Edison Glee Club, Ford Chorus and the Advance Medical and Research Center Chorale.

A salute to Fred Waring will be featured during the final 30 minutes of the concert. Tickets may be obtained by calling 373-9116. "Industry Sings" is a non-profit event.

Birthday concert

Shirley Ryan of Westland will be among the performers as the Schoolcraft College Community Choir celebrates the 300th birthday of George Handel and J.S. Bach with a concert at 3 p.m. April 21 at the First United Methodist Church, 22124 Garrison in Dearborn.

The choir will perform works by Handel, Bach, Mozart and Schutz. Admission is free.

2 in Memoriam
OUR SON Jerry is missed terribly. He was killed in a train car collision 3-28-69 at Venoy crossing. An underpass would save lives but city fathers don't care. Sammie Howard Watkins, 34966 Richard, Wayne

IN MEMORY

12-10-69 4-10-83
God looked around HIS garden, and found an empty space. HE then looked down on this earth and saw a smiling, young face. HE put HIS arms around him and lifted him to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, for HE only takes the best.
Sadly Missed,
Shirley Murray
Devoted Mother
(and family)

3. Card of Thanks
PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT
Holy Spirit, you make me see everything and show me the way to reach my ideals, you give me the divine gift to forgive and forget the wrongs that are done to me and you are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, want to thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you no matter how great the material desire may be. I want to be with you, my loved one, in your perpetual glory. Amen.
Persons must pray this prayer 3 consecutive days. After 3 days your wish will be granted, no matter how difficult it may be. Then promise to publish this dialogue as soon as the favor has been granted. Thank you Holy Spirit. MAS.

open for business

by jim ahrenberg

Welcome to the grand opening of our new business feature, OPEN FOR BUSINESS. We plan to let you in on some of the best values around and also talk about some of the friendly people in our local businesses. Many you already know and some you really should.

Have a free cup of coffee. Just stop by and say "Hi" at any of these Westland businesses: Inter-City Maintenance, Wobbe's Tires, Newburg Lumber, Med City, or the new One Hour Martinizing in the Woodcrest Villa Plaza.

It's about time! Romulus finally has a new video store right downtown. The owner is Romulus Automotive's own Ron Brugger, that enterprising young man who's really making things happen in the Romulus business community.

Want to get "tipsy" during Happy Hour? Your head will spin when you experience the taste of fresh baked homemade donuts at Baker's Dozen in Romulus. Every day during Happy Hour from 4-6 p.m., they're only $1.95 a dozen. Mary and her husband, Leonard, are a couple of Angels. Baker's Dozen is located on Wayne Road in the Wayne Port Plaza, Romulus.

Now's the time to aah choose Med City for fast, safe allergy testing. The revolutionary MAST allergy testing program began last week at Med City Medical and Dental Clinic, 8010 N. Wayne Road in Westland.

Al George, the personable new owner of Paddy's Pub in Westland is speeding up the lunch crunch... "The fastest, biggest and bestest fix-it-yourself soup, salad and sandwich bar," is set to begin around the first of May.

A news flash is coming over the wire now. It's the Western Union Wire Service, available exclusively in Canton and Plymouth at Larson's Express Package Service of Canton, corner of Lilley and Warren. Now folks who can rush your package anywhere can also send Western Union telegrams and cash anytime.

Do you have 10 minutes? That's all you need for a fast oil change at the Lighthouse on Ford Road in Canton. Their new station features a quick Pennzoil oil change along with a do-it-yourself car wash. Take the time and stop by. Your car will thank you in the long run.

This week's "Good Guy" award goes to Ron Malmsten of Lyon's Car Company of Wayne. We understand from a good source that Ron helped a stranger out of a potentially expensive car repair last week. Ron went way beyond the call of duty to help. He spent a considerable amount of time on the car, fixed it and didn't charge a dime. Three cheers for the Good Guy, Ron Malmsten.

Words about advertising: He who has a thing to sell and goes and whispers in a well is not so apt to get the dollars as he who climbs a tree and hollers!

See you next week! (Jim Ahrenberg is an advertising consultant for Associated Newspapers.)

Top dealer

Video rentals

Great Scott! Supermarkets have introduced cassette movies to rent from stores in Farmington Hills and Westland.

The first two Great Scott! Supermarkets will have staffed movie rental departments called Video Corner Rentals. They will rent VHS and BETA movies for $3 per day or sell cassette movies for $29 to $89. A membership fee is not required. The standard $50 deposit on rental tapes is not required either.

CITY OF WAYNE NOTICE

A request to declare the following described property as a Commercial Redevelopment District, pursuant to Act 255, P.A. of 1978, has been presented to the City Council of the City of Wayne, Wayne County, Michigan:

Child ID launched

Pepsi-Cola Bottlers of Michigan will kick off the New Generation Child Identification Program on Saturday and Sunday at the Farmer Jack Store located at 34630 Michigan near Third in Wayne.

Between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m., a parent or sponsor can bring their child to the store and register for a child identification card. Two copies of the card, which includes the child's name and 10 fingerprints, will be given to the parent and the child.

According to state law enforcement officials, more than 4,000 Michigan children are missing. With a child's fingerprints and recent photo on record, parents can use the identification card to help search for a missing child.

The 15-week child identification program is co-sponsored by Borman's, the Michigan Jaycee chapter and WDIV-TV.

Grassam gets degree

Dr. Ian A. Grassam, D.C., of Westland was the recipient of an honorary Doctor of Chiropractic Humanities Degree from Life Chiropractic College, presented during commencement ceremonies recently at the World Congress Center in Atlanta.

Grassam, who serves on Life College's board of trustees, is a 1968 graduate of Logan Chiropractic College and has served the chiropractic profession for nearly 20 years. He also presented the commencement address at the Life College graduation ceremony.

Grassam is a member of the International Chiropractor's

Association and a past recipient of the Michigan Chiropractic Council's Chiropractor of the Year award. He and his wife, Janet, are the parents of four children.

"There are few people that bring major changes to a profession and give purpose for living," Grassam said in accepting the honorary degree, "and I'm honored today by the people that mean the most to me in this regard, Drs. Sid and Nell Williams and the administration of Life Chiropractic College."

Dr. Sid Williams is the founder and president of Life Chiropractic College.

Homesharing: A solution for loneliness

Homesharing is one of the ways that more than 98,000 seniors living alone in Wayne, Oakland, Washtenaw and Livingston counties can combat the depression and loneliness that often occurs when seniors live alone.

Dorothy Robb, one of the founders of the Housing

Bureau for Seniors, Inc. in Washtenaw County, currently shares her home in Ann Arbor. She chose homesharing as a housing alternative five years ago after living alone in a condo and feeling very lonely.

"There isn't much in the way of housing alternatives for middle-income seniors. We don't qualify for subsidized housing, for example," Robb pointed out. "Some friends and I talked about what we could do to alleviate some of the feelings of loneliness and isolation that occur when you live alone.

"For instance, weekends can be awful. You have to make dates or spend the weekend alone. And if there is a snowstorm, you can be snowed in for days."

Robb finally sold her condo. Her new home has five bedrooms and three bathrooms, and she shares it with a retired 79-year-old doctor; a 53-year-old magazine editor; and a woman from Springfield, Missouri, who is in Ann Arbor helping her son set up a business.

"We buy groceries from a common pot -- we put in a slip telling what will be bought and take out money for it," Robb explained. One of the things that holds them together is having dinner with each other every night. They share food and conversation, and occasionally have guests in.

"I eat so much better now. Before I might have just opened a can of soup, or," she laughs, "had a Hersey bar."

It is very important that the homesharers share equally in responsibility for maintaining the household, stresses Robb.

"It takes a lot of patience. A workable situation won't come overnight," she warns. She advises that there are some very basic, but very crucial, questions that must be answered by the parties involved before they get into a homesharing situation.

"How do you feel about smoking, drinking, and pets? Religion can be a sore point, too, especially if one person proselytizes -- tries to force his or her religion on the others," Robb explained.

If those concerns can be worked out, however, Robb feels that homesharing can be a housing alternative worth investigating.

"If you work out the details before getting together, and if follow-up counseling is provided, it can be a very happy situation," Robb concluded.

"Those are the sorts of concerns we were very much aware of in developing and implementing the HomeShare program," explained Robert McMahon, Manager of Community and Economic Development for SEMCOG, the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments. SEMCOG is facilitating the HomeShare program and is working with five lead agencies: in Livingston County -- Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency in Howell; in Washtenaw County -- Housing Bureau for Seniors; in Oakland County -- Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency in Pontiac; in Metropolitan Detroit -- City of Detroit, Senior Citizens Department; and, in Out-Wayne County -- The Information Center, Inc.

"HomeShare will work with adults, one-on-one, to match them with compatible people to share a residence. The program is open to anyone over the age of 18, regardless of income level. That group includes young adults and seniors -- as well as singles and couples.

"We recognize the importance of compatibility, so we are striving to match adults who have common interests, needs and preference. When an applicant calls one of the agencies to apply, an interview is arranged. Personal references are checked, potential homesharers selected, a match is made, and the arrangement is monitored during a two-week trial period.

"As Ms. Robb pointed out, follow-up counseling is very important -- and it is provided to all homesharers matched through the HomeShare program," McMahon concluded.

SEMCOG is a voluntary association of counties, cities, village townships and schools in the seven-county Southeast Michigan region. The Council's principal functions are short- and long-range planning for housing, transportation, land use, public safety, recreation and open space, economic development, and the environment.

Schmidts to mark 25th

Friends and relatives will gather on May 4 at the Robinwood-Villa Hall to help Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schmidt of Taylor celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

The Schmidts exchanged their wedding vows on May 3, 1960, before a justice of the peace in Taylor.

The party will be hosted by their five sons—Chris, James, Mark, Kirk, and Kevin, all of Taylor.

Schmidt is employed at the Ford Motor Company's engineering plant in Dearborn. Both he and his wife are active in Our Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church in Taylor.

Guests will be coming from as far away as Tennessee, with their special guest being Gerald Moore of Romulus, who served as best man at their wedding.

On the wagon: Some sobering thoughts

Most drinkers think that "going on the wagon" is a desperate act, almost a confession of alcoholism. However, one expert suggests that occasional "holidays" from drinking may actually help prevent alcoholism.

Dr. Nicholas A. Pace, assistant professor of clinical medicine at the New York University School of Medicine, says that a respite of a few days to a few weeks can give the liver and brain a chance to bounce back from the daily exposure to alcohol.

Dr. Pace, who has helped many people overcome drinking problems, believes, as do a growing number of researchers, that overexposure to alcohol is as likely a cause of alcoholism as genetic susceptibility, psychological and social factors, brain chemistry and other variables.

"With a lot drinking and a little neglect, almost anyone can develop the disease we call alcoholism, just as any of us can contract pneumonia by foolishly exposing ourselves to its causes," he says. "While some people are more susceptible than others, it's dangerous for anyone to hope for some kind of built-in immunity. However, people who are alert to the dangers of alcohol can more easily avoid them."

In addition to "taking holidays from drinking," Dr. Pace recommends the following program to guard against "unsafe" drinking:

- Analyze your drinking behavior. Review the typical situation in which you drink alcohol. Write down when you drink, what you drink, how much, how often and where. Be alert to ritualistic drinking — two drinks before dinner, for example, or a few beers while watching the ball game on TV.

• Pinpoint danger sports. At the same time, don't let drinking rituals become problems. The cocktails-before-dinner crowd sometimes rigidly insists on its evening libation whatever other drinks the day may have brought. For a physiologically susceptible person, years and years of pre-dinner cocktails may be enough to produce the biological damage that contributes to alcoholism.

• Rewrite your drinking scenario. Sometimes a normal "safe" drinking pattern may be thrown off by a single element. Changing the scenario can avoid the danger.

• Drink less, switch to potent or non-alcoholic drinks. If your ritual is two cocktails, drink one. Also, try switching to something less potent — a wine spritzer or glass of beer, for example. Even better, alternate your drinks. Don't have two alcoholic drinks in a row.

New Japanese 'Super Pill' Insures Rapid Weight-Loss

No Dieting — Eat All You Want,
Pill Does All The Work

BEVERLY HILLS, CA — An exciting new "all natural" weight-loss "Super" Pill developed by the JMA (Japanese Medical Association) has just been approved for distribution in the United States. Reportedly, it can guarantee that you will lose more than a pound a day without dieting, from the very first day until you reach your ideal weight and figure. News of this "Super Pill" is literally sweeping the country. It's called Amitol and there has never been anything quite like it before.

"Flushes Calories Right Out Of Your Body"

What makes Amitol so thrilling and unique is its reported ability to flush calories right out of your body. Amitol is completely safe, it contains no drugs whatsoever. Its ingredients are derived solely from the Konjac root which grows primarily in Northern Japan.

Why the Konjac root? It has been used in Japan for over 1600 years to produce rapid and natural weight-loss! Japanese studies verify that Konjac root actually prevents fat producing calories from being absorbed into your system. They say it does this by surrounding much of the fats, proteins and carbohydrates you have eaten with a protective viscous coating which is then gently flushed out of your system. And according to Japanese research this produces absolutely amazing results.

And who can disagree! Amitol (although brand new to this country) is already being called by many people, "the most exciting weight-loss breakthrough of the century." In fact, everywhere there are reports of easy and fast weight-loss from formerly overweight people (in all walks of life) who are now slim, trim, and attractive again.

Company Offers Extraordinary Guarantee

You now can purchase Amitol direct from the North American distributor, and it comes with an extraordinary guarantee.

If you place your order now and then follow the simple instructions for a period of 30 days, you must be completely satisfied with the dramatic visible results or just return the empty container and Dyna Labs will immediately send back your entire purchase price. This guarantee applies regardless of your age or current weight level. What could be better than that! It's just that simple. If you've tried to lose weight before and failed you no longer have an excuse. Amitol is available, it's easy and it works without dieting!

$19.95—30 day supply, or $35.95—60 day supply. Order immediately by sending a check or money order to DYNALABS, 270 No. Canon Dr., Ste. 1255 (Dept. U-21) Beverly Hills, CA, 90210. (Enclose your return address). Credit card holders can order by simply dialing toll free: (1-800-367-2400) 24 hrs a day, 7 days a week. Either way your order will be promptly sent. Please don't wait. You really do deserve to be thin.

HONOLULU VACATION IS CUT SHORT BY COMMERCIAL AIRLINES!

Dear Letter Writer:

We had such a bad flight recently that I would like to write to the airlines and see if they will do anything to make us feel better. It was a disaster. Please help! !

Sincerely, A. R.

Dear Airline President:

- A smoke-filled flight for non-smokers and asthmatic passenger

- Two meals served to three passengers

- late flight arrival resulting in "missed" connection

- Nauseated passengers with no "sick bags"

- Request to deplane "first" denied by stewardess

- 23 1/2 hours without luggage, resulting in purchases of clothing and toiletries.

On Dec. 26, 1984, we took Flight No. 87 from Detroit to Los Angeles, California; our arrangements were for a connecting flight to Honolulu. Our prearranged non-smoking section seats were in the last row of the non-smoking section over which a cloud of smoke hung.

In an attempt to resolve this disturbing matter, we requested a solution from the steward who simply stated "there is nothing I can do." His demeanor was one of annoyance, not accommodation. Due to overbooking and the related confusion, the takeoff at Detroit Metropolitan Airport was delayed 30 minutes. Now, finally in the air, there was no Coca-Cola on board to settle our nervous stomachs. Dinner was served and two meals arrived. As is clear, there were three of us with seats and paid tickets. The nausea we were suffering became critical and we found ourselves without the proper "bag."

Our scheduled arrival in Los Angeles was 6:15 p.m. We, however, arrived at 6:40 p.m.

Inasmuch as we had a connecting flight, we requested that we be allowed to deplane "first." This request was denied and, in fact, we were among the last to depart the airplane. Needless to say, we missed our connection.

After eliciting the help of your personnel, we were put on another flight without, of course, our luggage.

Upon arriving in Honolulu, we immediately filed a "lost baggage form." We were never informed that your airlines provides an "overnight package" to its customers for this eventuality. Thus, we each purchased a "cool" outfit and necessary toiletries.

At approximately noon the following day all, but one of our suitcases arrived. We placed a call to trace the missing luggage and were told to come to pick it up because a report had not been filed. We informed them that this was not the case, provided our claim number, however, were still told to come in to pick it up.

We called a tour company, explained the situation and after 23 1/2 hours, the last suitcase was delivered.

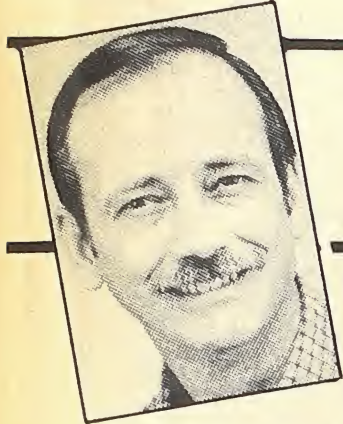

Upon returning to Detroit, Sunday, Jan. 6, 1985, at 8 a.m., we were without luggage, again. We waited for two hours during which time we had a chauffeured limousine waiting for us at the rate of $50 per hour. Our luggage finally arrived, two days later, on Jan. 8, at 4:15 a.m.

We are Frequent Flyers. We found our flight with your airlines disconcerting and unpleasant, your staff hostile and uncooperative and our trip encumbered with harrassment and financial expenses.

Is there a remedy within your Company Policies for this situation?

Sincerely, A.R.

RESOLUTION: This letter was mailed on Feb. 7, 1985. During the week of March 25, 1985, this airline sent each of the three passengers $50 travel coupons. This letter was worth writing. UNITED AIRLINES does care about its customers.

Editor's Note: Dan Morris has been a professional dog trainer for more than 20 years and has worked in all phases of dog training. If you have a specific problem, his advice is available by writing to him in care of Associated Newspapers, Inc., P.O. Box 578, Wayne, Michigan 48184. He will reply in this column.

Those of us who own a dog dream of having one like Lassie or Rin Tin Tin. However, motion pictures give the impression Lassie is a perfect dog. But have you seen him taking a "break" while performing before the cameras? You couldn't sell commercials, if Lassie lifted his leg on the tree before saving Timmy. As a matter of fact, there are five dogs who alternate playing the single role of Lassie. So your dog is competing against five professionals.

The trouble is, the dog training occupation is an underestimated one and, more often than not, lacks credibility. Many times, this attitude is deserved - the reason being that dan's dogs

by dan a. morris anyone can call himself a dog trainer. All that is necessary is to rent space and call it a school. Out of an estimated 100 phone calls, maybe one person will ask about my qualifications. That information should be their first priority because a trainer without a degree of certification is like a deadly weapon - dangerous. Dog training is not walking in a circle with 30 to 40 other students, jerking the dog's neck and yelling "Heel!" If that was all there was to it, why does the Air Force K-9 School place a value of $50,000 on each instructor trained there?

A dog instructor must have the ability to handle dogs of all breeds, temperaments and ages. He must instruct in a clear, precise manner and organize his classload in order to devote individualized attention to each student, if needed. Every dog is unique, as is every student. The trainer must be aware of this.

When phoning a dog training school, most people ask about off-leash training (advanced training enabling the dog to work without a leash). Regardless of which school is chosen, the student will have to complete on-leash training (basic obedience) before progressing to the advanced course. Logically, no subject is studied in reverse. Before progressing to French II, French I has to be learned. It is the same with dog training.

People have become irritated with me when I explain why their dog is a problem.

Well, asking is learning and the reputable trainer will tell the truth at all costs because he is anxious to help. It is natural to become defensive when our dog is criticized. But once the dog has developed bad habits that behavior must be changed and that is what the instructor is there for. So, listen to what the trainer advises and follow his instructions.

Extension holds Home Ec Week

The Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service is sponsoring Home Economics Week, May 6-10, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 daily, at the Wayne County Extension and Education Center, 5454 Venoy Road, Wayne.

Dr. June L. Sears, Director of the Extension Center, will be the keynote speaker on May 6 to highlight the week's activities.

The event is open to the general public, organizations and agencies who are not familiar with the many programs available to families in Wayne County, as well as to those who have utilized its services for many years.

During the week, there will be workshops, demonstrations, exhibits and tours designed to give participants a sampling of the many programs offered through the Extension Service.

The fee is $8 for the entire week or $2 per day so participants are free to select the topics of most interest to them and their families.

For more information call 721-6565.

RESOLUTION CALLING ANNUAL SCHOOL ELECTION

Huron School District, Wayne and Monroe Counties, Michigan.

A special meeting of the board of education of the district was held in the Huron High School Lecture Hall, in the district, on the 1st day of April, 1985, at 7:30 o'clock, p.m.

The meeting was called to order by James Pershing, President.

Present: Members Cady, Burgess, Tabor, Watson, Tobin, Dregansky and Pershing.

Absent: Members None

The following preamble and resolution were presented by Member Burgess and supported by Member Dregansky:

WHEREAS:

1. The School Code of 1976 provides for the holding of the annual school election on the second Monday of June of each year.
2. This district for elections is governed by Part 12 and Part 13 of the School Code of 1976, as amended.
3. This board has formed the district into four (4) voting precincts.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. The annual school election of the school electors of the district be called and held on Monday, June 10, 1985; the polls of election to be open from 7:00 o'clock, a.m., until 8:00 o'clock, p.m.
2. The secretary is directed to give notice of the last day of registration to the electors of the district by causing notice of registration to be published in the Romulus Roman of Wayne, Michigan, a newspaper published in or of general circulation in the district, at least TWICE before the last day of registration, which is Monday, May 13, 1985. The first publication is to be made on or before Thursday, May 2, 1985, and the second publication is to be made not earlier than Saturday, May 4, 1985 and not later than Sunday, May 12, 1985.
- If deemed advisable by the secretary of the board, the secretary shall also give notice of the last day of registration by causing a notice to be posted in three (3) public places in each precinct in the district on or before Thursday, May 2, 1985.
3. The secretary, as chief elections officer, shall have proper ballots prepared and provided in sufficient quantity for the election and to do all things and provide all supplies necessary for the annual election as required by law to be done. The secretary, if he/she deems appropriate, may pursuant to Section 1001(2) of the School Code of 1976, as amended, delegate election duties to a member of the district's administrative staff.
4. The notice of the last day of registration for the annual school election to be held on Monday, June 10, 1985, shall be in substantially the form as set forth in Exhibit "A" attached hereto.
5. This board shall adopt a resolution at a regular or special meeting, with respect to the matters to be submitted to a vote of the electors at the annual school election to be held on Monday, June 10, 1985.
6. All resolutions and parts of resolutions insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this resolution be and the same are hereby rescinded.

Ayes: Members Burgess, Tobin, Dregansky and Pershing.

Nays: Members Cady, Tabor and Watson.

Motion declared adopted.

Jacqueline S. Dregansky
Secretary, Board of Education

The undersigned duly qualified and acting Secretary of the Board of Education of Huron School District, Wayne and Monroe Counties, Michigan, hereby certifies that the foregoing is a true and complete copy of a resolution adopted by the Board of Education at a special meeting held on April 1, 85, the original of which resolution is a part of the Board's minutes and further certifies that notice of the meeting was given to the public under the Open Meetings Act, 1976 PA 267, as amended.

Jacqueline S. Dregansky
